Following on from popular tv shows such as Strictly Come Dancing, we have launched our brand new corporate activity package - "Conference and Dance".

This package will bring your teams together to learn a few steps and have fun!

The package starts by giving you a meeting room in the morning to carry out your own training session or team meeting, followed by a tasty lunch.

In the afternoon, you move over to our dedicated dance studio for an active two hour session with professional dance instructor(s). The lesson can either be based around Rock 'n Roll (particularly popular with the older generation), or Salsa/Latin steps.

There is the option to finish with a fun "Dance Off", such as 'Boy v Girls', or perhaps rewarding the "Most Improved Dancer".

Easthampstead Park has 28 en-suite bedrooms, giving you the option to extend the package with a delicious dinner and overnight accommodation.

The standard package costs only £48 per person (+vat), giving you the meeting room, unlimited tea/coffee from the beverage areas, restaurant buffet lunch, the two hour dance lesson and a bottle of Champagne for the winners of the "dance off".

Extend this to the overnight package and the total cost is only £120 (+vat) per person.
